In re:

DONALD ANDREW DRIGGS,
Debtor.

ORDER OVERRULING OBJECTION
OF JT & TJ, INC. TO ADEQUACY
OF DEBTOR'S DISCLOSURE
STATEMENT, WITHOUT PREJUDICE

BKY 08-41984

*****
At St. Paul, Minnesota, this 3rd day of October, 2008.

This Chapter 11 case came on before the Court on September 22, 2008, for the hearing on the adequacy of the Debtor's disclosure statement. Jamie R. Pierce appeared on behalf of the Debtor. Other appearances were noted in the record.

Several objections to the adequacy of the disclosure statement had been filed. They included one received by the clerk of this Court on August 20, 2008, in the form of a letter from one Terrence J. Magill, identifying himself as the President of JT & TJ, Inc., a creditor. The Court held that the issues raised by the author of this letter went to the confirmation of the Debtor's plan, and not to the adequacy of information that would be disclosed to creditors prior to the hearing on confirmation. The Court also noted that the creditor was holding itself out as a corporation, but was not making an appearance in this case through a duly-licensed attorney as Loc. R. Bankr. P. (D. Minn.) 9010-4 requires.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. The objection of JT & TJ, Inc. to the adequacy of the Debtor's disclosure statement is overruled, without prejudice to that creditor's right to timely object to the confirmation of the Debtor's plan on the same or other grounds.
